

A task is a point (r, k, o) in this ordinal space; level 1 is the most constrained on each axis.

Whether a given system covers a task is measured (AR and LE against a named reference), not read off the diagram.